

Peace of mind for any repair

Allied Valve has joined the Groth Authorized Repair Dealer (GARD™) Program to provide factory authorized repairs for all Groth Corporation products.

As a Groth Authorized Repair Dealer, Allied Valve provides around-the-clock service with fast turnaround to give you peace of mind for any repair.

The GARD Difference

- GARD Authorized Technicians are trained and certified by GROTH Corporation
- Only GROTH OEM parts used to repair your equipment, assuring proper fit and function
- Unsurpassed inventory of OEM repair parts
- Regular audits by GROTH Corporation, assuring quality and standards compliance
- A network of expert staff who can provide professional support

Why Choose GARD?

- Faster turnaround
- Confidence the repair was done right
- Ensures compliance to API seat leakage recertification
- Quality repairs that keep equipment in service and out of the shop

Allied Valve has the right equipment to test to full EPA and OSHA compliance with OEM recertifications of seat leakage using our state-of-the-art Barbee test stand. We test or repair all manufacture vents, blanket gas regulators, and flame arresters.

Rely on Allied Valve for the professional, experienced and industry-certified technicians to get the job done right the first time.

Rest assured, the enormous investments we make each year in professional technician training and re-certifications have important consequences in the safety and efficiency of your operations. Trust Allied Valve with your peace of mind.
